Business Use Case Name: Airline check-in process for an international flight.

Trigger: When a passenger come in.

Preconditions: When a passenger show the ticket.

Post conditions: The right passenger, flight, and destination.

Actors: The passenger and the check-in agent.

Basic Flow:

1. Ask for a ticket or record locator.

2. Check that this is the right passenger, flight, and destination.

3. Check that the status of the passenger.

4. Ask for a situatable seat for the passenger.

5. Ask for how many bags the passenger is checking and verify the carry-on limit.

6. Ask security questions about bags. If they are all set, print out the security tag and attach for the passenger.

7. Print the boarding pass.

8. Conform the information on the boarding pass.

9. Wish the passenger a good flight.